The School of Kinesiology and Health Studies at Queen’s University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching a course in HLTH 101 – Social Determinants of Health. This is an on-campus, lecture-based course with an expected enrolment of ~650 students. Candidates should have a Master’s or PhD, and related teaching experience. This is a Fall Term 2018 appointment for the period 01 Sep 2018 to 31 Dec 2018, with classes in session from 06 Sep 2018 to 01 Dec 2018.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen’s is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, visible minorities, Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, and LGBTQ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant’s accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during this process, please contact: Angie Maltby at aam2@queensu.ca or 613-533-6000 x75214.

The academic staff at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement between the Queen's University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University, which is posted at http://www.queensu.ca/facultyrelations/faculty-librarians-and-archivists/queens-qufa-collective-agreement.

Applications should include a complete and current curriculum vitae, contact information for two (2) references, and any other relevant materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration such as a letter of intent, teaching dossier, etc. You may send your application in MS Word or PDF format via email to: skhs.director@queensu.ca or you may send hard copies of your application and supporting letters directly to:

Dr. Jean Côté, Director
School of Kinesiology and Health Studies
28 Division Street, Queen’s University
Kingston Ontario Canada K7L 3N6

Applications will be received until Wednesday 20 June 2018. Review of applications will commence shortly thereafter, and the final appointment is subject to budgetary approval. Additional information about the School of Kinesiology and Health Studies is available at http://www.queensu.ca/skhs/
