The School of Kinesiology and Health Studies at Queen’s University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching a course in KNPE 365/3.0 – Motivational Interviewing for Physical Activity Behaviour Change. This is an on-campus, lecture-based course with an expected enrolment of ~90 students. Candidates should have a Master’s or PhD, and related teaching experience. This is a Winter Term 2020 appointment for the period 01 Jan 2020 to 30 Apr 2020, with classes in session from 06 Jan 2020 to 03 Apr 2020.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen’s is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, visible minorities, Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, and LGBTQ+ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant’s accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during this process, please contact: Angie Maltby at aam2@queensu.ca or 613-533-6000 x75214.

The academic staff at Queen’s University are governed by the Collective Agreement between the Queen's University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University, which is posted at http://www.queensu.ca/facultyrelations/faculty-librarians-and-archivists/queens-qufa-collective-agreement.

Applications should include a complete and current curriculum vitae, contact information for two (2) references, and any other relevant materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration such as a letter of intent, teaching dossier, etc. You may send your application in MS Word or PDF format via email to: skhs.director@queensu.ca or you may send hard copies of your application and supporting letters directly to:

Dr. Jean Côté, Director
School of Kinesiology and Health Studies
