Raise the Bar and Exercise is Medicine is hosting a mini-conference and speaker series on Saturday, March 24th. This conference will focus on multidimensional health and is a great opportunity to learn from and meet professors and professionals in the health field.

The event will feature a keynote speaker, workshops and a panel discussion. Lunch will be provided to all delegates. More information can be found on our Facebook page Healthy Perspectives.

Looking for part-time work during the school year and extended hours during the summer?

Sportball invites energetic, enthusiastic, sports-oriented people to join our coaching team. Applicants should have participated in sports and should have a passion for working with children. An educational background in Kinesiology, Early Childhood Education, Recreation Management, Physical Education or Personal Training is helpful but not required.

Sportball is a non-competitive sports instruction program that introduces children between 16 months and 12 years to fitness and the skills associated with eight different sports (soccer, hockey, football, basketball, baseball, volleyball, tennis and golf).

Candidates should be comfortable coaching younger children including toddlers as many of our programs focus on this age group.

All coaches are provided with comprehensive initial training as well as ongoing training and support in Sportball methodology and program delivery.

- Transportation is required. Coaches are required to travel to and from locations with the equipment required for programming.
- Positions are part-time, year-round, long-term.
- Valid CPR and CPIC required.

For more information about Sportball, visit www.sportball.ca.

To apply, please e-mail your cover letter and resume to bishop.lauren@hotmail.com. It is an asset if applicants are able to commit to the position throughout the school year.

WEEK ELEVEN

Tues 27 March, Vic Hall, 12-7.00 – Exam Schedule Drop-In (Stauffer)
• Learn how to schedule adequate time for studying for each of your final exams – no matter how many you might have! A Peer Learning Assistant will take you through the process step-by-step and answer your questions about revising, catching up and writing exams.

Sunday 1 April, 12-8.00 - Get It Done
• As the assignments pile up and exams loom, you’re probably thinking: how am I supposed to get this much work done without catered food, scheduled breaks, and the help of the pros? We are too! So we’re inviting you to GET IT DONE: a day of supported studying and fun in Ban Righ Dining Hall, brought to you by Student Academic Success Services. Bring your schoolwork and working minds, because we’ll have everything you need for success, including drinks and food, a comfy study spot, and a team of trained writing and learning assistants to improve your academic work.
WEEK TWELVE

Weds 4 April, 1.30 - Exam Prep: Multiple Choice
- So you’ve got a hundred decisions to make in an hour, and a whole textbook to work from. We’ll talk you through a process to help you select what you’ll learn, memorize it, and ease the stress of exam day.

Thurs 5 April, 1.30 - Exam Prep: Essays & Short Answers
- Dealing with essay exams can be tricky: how do you produce a complex and clear argument in just a few minutes? We’ll show you how to revise, how to practice, and how to ace the exam.

Fri 6 April, 1.30 - Exam Prep: Math & Science Problems
- This class is designed to help you master and memorize the formulae and methods you’ll need to perform at a high level on equation-based exams in math, computer science, engineering and related subjects.

Our online schedule is available for both the Writing Centre & Learning Strategies.

Book your appointment online to speak with a professional or peer writing consultant or a learning strategist: http://queensu.mywconline.com

Our services are free to all Queen’s students, regardless of year, ability or program.
