

Certificate in Disability & Physical Activity

Schuyler Earl, Revved Up and DIPA Certificate Coordinator

What is the DIPA Certificate?

What is the DIPA Certificate?

- 15 units (5 courses), credential on transcript
- Provides an interdisciplinary foundation in disability studies, physical activity, health and their intersection while fostering fundamental academic skills
- Lecture + case-based coursework, technology-enhanced modules, and unique experiential learning opportunities with the Revved Up Adapted Exercise Program

What will I learn?

What will I learn?

- Develop a deeper understanding of what it means for people to live with a disability/chronic disease and how physical activity can improve their quality of life
- Strengthen communication and leadership skills
- Develop exercise prescription skills with a focus on considerations for people with a disability, and perform program reassessments on Revved Up participants

What else do I get?

What else do I get?

- Stand out among your peers
 - One of the only certificates in Canada
 - Experiential learning
 - Authentic, professional experience
- Professional mentorship
 - Small class sizes
 - One-on-one guidance
 - Core competencies for the CSEP-CPT exam
- Be part of a world-class program
 - Impact on your life and others'

What is the investment?

What is the commitment?

- Certificate comprised of 15.0 units (5 courses)
- 6.0 units (2 courses) double count towards your degree
- 9.0 extra units (3 courses) for the certificate
- ~$2,000 based on 2019-2020 FAS unit fees

How do I apply?

How do I apply?

- Must be enrolled in an undergrad program on Queen's campus
- Grade cut off of 2.7 GPA to apply
- Limited number of spots available each year

How do I apply?

- Staying in Kingston this summer and completed HLTH 200/KNPE 255?
 - Apply for Summer 2020 openings
 - Email asc.registration@queensu.ca by January 17th at 4:00 pm with the subject line: "DIPA summer 2020 application"
- Admission for Fall 2020-Winter 2021
 - Check out the DIPA Certificate page on SKHS or FAS website for specific

QUESTIONS?

Email Schuyler
Dipa.coordinator@queensu.ca

