LLCU 327, Sickness and Health – Cultural Representations in Medical Discourse

Fall Term 2018, seats still available.

Option course in HLTH plans, elective in KIN/PHE plans.

The course investigates German cultural images and metaphors of disease, with an emphasis on the evolution of normalcy. We will study representations of disease (photography, museum exhibit, literary text), their historic development, and theories of media with respect to both historical and contemporary notions of sickness and health.

PREREQUISITE Level 2 or above or permission of the Department of Languages, Literatures and Cultures.

GNDS 380, Special Topics: Indigenous Meanings of Reproduction and Health

Winter 2019, seats still available.

Elective in HLTHL/KIN/PHE plans.

Indigenous meanings of reproduction and health will form the core of this course, and guided by key themes in Indigenous feminist theories, methodologies, and practice. We will discuss the influence of the bio-medical model on Indigenous meanings of health and examine how this Western model of knowing has influenced the health of Indigenous peoples, with a particular focus on maternity care in Canada. We will discuss, at an introductory level, the Constitution Act, 1982, the Indian Act, and several modern treaties to gain an understanding of the various political levers that significantly affect health care and maternity care for Indigenous peoples. Students will be guided through broad themes using a variety of media: peer-reviewed journal articles, blogs, motion pictures, video files, and audio files. We will discuss contradictions and incongruences in an open, respectful, and thought-provoking manner.

Prerequisite: Level 3 standing.

Dean's Honour Lists for 2017-18

If you read Academic Regulation 12 – Dean's Honour Lists, you will learn that the required GPA of 3.50 for the academic year of 2017-18 includes Summer Term 2018. The Faculty of Arts & Science will be running the reports for grades at the end of August and it takes a couple weeks beyond that for the rulings to be confirmed and entered on individual transcripts.

The rulings of "Dean's Honour List" or "Dean's Honour List with Distinction" (top 3% of all students within their program group – see above regulation) will start appearing on transcripts from mid- to late September, so do not look for it before that date.

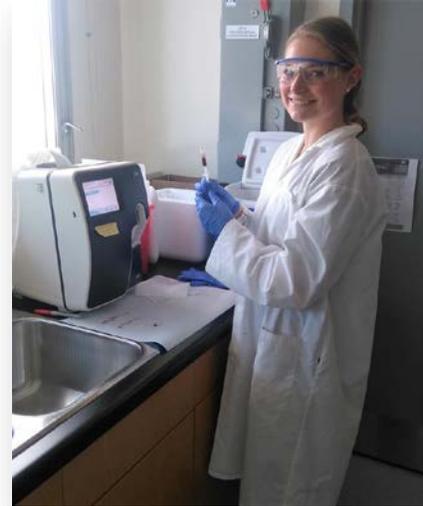

Students should also be aware that to qualify "There may be no failures and no repeated course enrolments in the relevant Fall-Winter-Summer academic year and there may be no outstanding IN or GD grades. All final grades and changes of grade must be submitted by 31 August, the final date for determination of an academic year GPA."

USRA NSERC

Interested in applying for a position for Summer 2019?
Monitor the UG News for details in early Winter Term.

This summer Olivia Mew (KIN '20) was as an Undergraduate Summer Research Assistant in the Human Vascular Control Lab, under the supervision of Dr. Tschakovsky (funded by NSERC).

"My role includes assisting graduate students with data collection, data entry, and analysis on a variety of projects. One project aims to determine the effect of nutritional supplements on exercise tolerance by measuring physiological differences in blood; another project is observing the differences in perception of effort by manipulating muscle oxygenation in the forearm."

Tarah Ethier, KIN '20 (pictured here with Lily Merovitz-Budning, KIN '19), worked as an Undergraduate Summer Research Assistant in the Cardiovascular Stress Response Lab, under the supervision of Dr. Pyke (funded by NSERC).

"As the CVSRL's 2018 NSERC USRA Recipient I have had the opportunity to work on a wide range of exciting research projects and learn various data collection techniques. Artery diameter tracking via ultrasound is definitely one of my favourite skills that I have learned while working in the lab! One project that I find particularly interesting explores endothelial cell function in individuals that experience migraines."

Repeated Courses

Not only will a repeated course keep you from being eligible for the Dean's Honour Lists (see a previous page), it will disqualify you from graduating With Distinction. For more details go to Academic Regulation 16.3 Requirements for Graduation.

INDIGENOUS MENTORSHIP NETWORK PROGRAM

QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY LAUNCH

9:00AM - 4:00PM | 21 SEPTEMBER 2018

ROBERT SUTHERLAND HALL

The Indigenous Mentorship Network of Ontario is a five-year health training program funded by the Canadian Institutes of Health Research that aims to support and grow the next generation of Indigenous health scholars. Currently, local chapters of the network exist at 13 research institutions across the province.

Join us at the Queen's University launch, at which we will be identifying priorities for our local network and developing initiatives to support the needs of our community. All students, faculty, staff, Indigenous community members, Indigenous organizations, and allies interested in Indigenous health research, Indigenous health professions, and Indigenous health services are welcome. Event is FREE. Registration is required.

CHAMP

ABOUT MASCULINITY & PRIVILEGE

who are we?

A group working to:

- Gain a better understanding of self-identity in relation to masculinity
- Understand privilege and responsibility in “being a man”
- Develop confidence in conversing about healthy masculinities
- Be ambassadors of healthy masculinity on campus

↪ champ@queensu.ca

CHAMPion Applications: <https://bit.ly/2C5IN17>

CHAMP Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/champ.queensu/>

More information: Contact champ@queensu.ca

What is a CHAMPion?

Purpose

The CHAMPions are an integral part of the Connecting Healthy Attitudes about Masculinity and Privilege (CHAMP) program, helping to promote and design events throughout the academic year. Students selected as CHAMPions are provided a number of professional development and skill-building opportunities on a semi-regular basis, and engage with other members of the campus community in discussions around healthy masculinity and what it means to 'be a man'.

Expectations

As a CHAMPion, you will be expected to:

- Represent the CHAMP program, which supports healthy masculinity on campus.
- Participate in the planning of at least one CHAMP event during the academic year.
- Be a leader within your community (in-residence or off-campus).
- Participate in regular (4x per semester) meet-ups with other CHAMPions.
- Respect others' backgrounds and ideas regarding masculinity.
- Promote CHAMP events and activities.

Opportunities

As a CHAMPion, you will have opportunities to:

- Develop leadership skills.
- Develop event planning skills (budgeting, logistics, marketing, etc.).
- Develop confidence in holding conversations about healthy masculinity.
- Network with campus and community resources.
- Meet and connect with other students who have similar interests.
- Occasional professional development on topics of interest to you and other CHAMPions, including but not limited to social norms, identity, and men's health.
- Receive a 'CHAMP' jacket bar upon completion of year.
- Receive a certificate upon completion of year.
- Have something to add to your resumé!.

Requirements

To be a CHAMPion, we are looking for students who:

- Are first year undergraduate students.
- Identify as male.
- Have an interest in learning about healthy masculinity and discussing what it means to 'be a man'.

Interested in becoming a CHAMPion? E-mail champ@queensu.ca to apply!

All students are welcome to apply; however, we will be selecting one CHAMPion from each residence building and two FYNIRS

Kingston Gets Active is seeking volunteers! If you love being active, are passionate about healthy living and want to inspire others, this is the job for you.

What do Volunteer Ambassadors do? Ambassadors attend community events, give presentations, and lead fit breaks. They let others know about great ways to get active in the Kingston area by sharing resources and information on physical activity. There are lots of ways to be involved, depending upon your interests; and there is lots of flexibility too. We ask that you commit to helping with at least 4 events/year.

Interested in joining our team of volunteers? We offer a free training to give you all the skills you need. The next training will take place the fall, 2018. For more information, contact Kristin at info@KingstonGetsActive.ca or call 613-533-6000 x79178.

2018 Barry Smith Symposium
September 7, 2018 from 4:30 – 7:30 pm
New Medical Building, 15 Arch Street

The 2018 Barry Smith Symposium aims to introduce and tackle issues that are important for healthcare and systemic change. We hope to educate guests so that they can recognize the challenges ahead of them, and to inspire them to take action in the face of these challenges. The event is held in a panel format, and as such, emphasizes discussion and interaction with the audience.

This year we will be joined by a highly esteemed panel to share their views on Sexual and Reproductive Health & Rights. We are pleased to welcome Lisa Kelly, Dr. Ashley Waddington, Manavi Handa, and Dr. Jenna Healey as our featured speakers and Dr. Romy Nitsch as our moderator.

Please join us for food and refreshments at 4:30 pm in the atrium, which will be followed by the symposium at 5pm in room 132A.

KINGSTON IMPACT BASKETBALL CLUB

Paid Position

Are you looking to gain experience within an established Kingston and Area Sports Organization? The Kingston Impact Basketball Club is looking to hire a responsible House League Convenor to oversee the Kingston Impact Development League.

The Impact Development League promotes an active lifestyle by providing a positive experience in sport. To that end, we want all players to experience the fun of being a contributing member of a team while gaining confidence by learning new skills and applying them to various games situations. This program is divided into 2 parts:

Skills Development (September - December), and League Play (January - March)

The first half of the program emphasizes skill development. All sessions will include modified games but the focus will be developing athlete's skills. Following the Christmas break, the 2nd half of the program will be a standard House League format.

Commitment: Saturdays 7:30am-5:00pm (approximately 10 hours)

Salary: $500 per month

Prerequisites:

- Experience working with children ages 5 to 13, knowledge of the game of basketball, up to date CPIC
- Duties including but not limited to:
- Direct supervision of development league site and all age group sessions
- Coordination of high school aged staff and submission of time sheets
- Ensure the safety of all participants
- Organization of teams, scheduling of games, and planning end of season one-day tournament
- Direct communication with sub - convenors, athletes, parents and coaches
- Ability to provide on floor coaching and instruction if necessary

Deadline for submission of interest: September 7, 2018

For additional information and applications, contact Sheldon Laidman, president@kingstonimpact.ca
