

COVID-19 RESOURCES FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS

1 COVID-Related Bursary Assistance

Queen's is providing immediate financial support to those in need, please use the following link to apply:

<https://www.queensu.ca/studentawards//covid-19-related-bursary-assistance>

2 Canada Emergency Response Benefit (CERB)

For those who have stopped working due to COVID-19, had employment/income of at least $5000 12 months prior

<https://www.canada.ca/en/services/benefits/ei/cerb-application.html>

3 Canada Emergency Student Benefit (CESB)

For students ineligible for the CERB:

<https://www.canada.ca/en/departement-finance/news/2020/04/support-for-students-and-recent-graduates-impacted-by-covid-19.html>

4 Queen's General + Emergency Bursary

For international graduate students in need of financial aid:

<https://www.queensu.ca/provost/emergency-bursary-international-graduate-students>

5 Student Affairs Support Services

For information regarding support service operations (e.g., hospitality, student health and wellness) please visit:

<https://www.queensu.ca/studentaffairs/covid-19/springsummer-2020-student-support-services-during-covid-19>

6 Ontario Emergency Assistance program

For those in emergency situations

<https://www.ontario.ca/page/apply-emergency-assistance>

7 Your Department at Queen's

For ongoing academic support within the SKHS, your graduate coordinator Dr. Luc Martin is also available to assist you (skhsgrad.coord@queensu.ca)

For updates from SGS on COVID19: <https://www.queensu.ca/sgs/covid-19-sgs-updates>

For updates from Student Awards on COVID-19: <https://www.queensu.ca/studentawards/student-awards-covid-19-updates-and-important-information>