Course Description: Globalization provides a key context for the study of social determinants of health (SDH): the conditions in which people live and work, and their access to opportunities for healthy lives and wellbeing. This new world order is marked by new actors, new rules of governance, new forms of communication, and the global movement of populations. This course will examine economic, social, technological and importantly the political dimensions of globalization and how these impact the health and wellbeing of Black populations, identifying opportunities and risks.		Prerequisite: Level 3 in a HLTH or KINE Plan. Course is also open to students registered at the BISC.
