		Prerequisite: KNPE 265/3.0 Level 2 or above in a KINE plan.
		Exclusion:
Course Description: The aim of this course is to introduce the theory and methods of coaching. This course addresses topics such as athlete development, coaching models, coach education, coach behaviours, interpersonal relationships, and contextual influences on coaching. This course also reflects on methodological issues related to coaching research. A central aim of this course is to encourage students to reflect on how they might apply course content to real-life situations. As coaches, athletes, and members of the sport community, this course will ask students to reflect on their own life experiences. Sharing these personal experiences is highly valued (but not required) and will help to make lectures lively and interesting. Students' opinions and/or disagreements are not frowned upon, but encouraged; they can lead to great conversations and an increased understanding of the course materials for everyone.		Course Text: Readings will be posted on onQ
Learning Outcomes: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Describe and differentiate key models of coaching and leadership.• Observe and interpret coaching behaviours.• Identify factors that influence skill acquisition and leadership development• Explore strategies to improve coaching effectiveness and reflect on various coaching practices.• Evaluate and critique coaching education programs and coaching research.• Adapt course content to propose practical applications for your own leadership development as well as coaches, athletes, parents, and sport practitioners.
